FROM PAGE TO STAGE

KICKOFF AND RECEPTION FOR FOURTH ANNUAL LIBRARY/Writers' THEATRE SERIES

Tuesday, April 21 at 7:00 p.m.

Woman's Library Club – 325 Tudor Court

In 2009, "From Page to Stage" features a series of programs designed around the presentation of The Minister's Wife at Writers' Theatre. In cooperation with the theatre, nine North Shore public libraries will present a variety of programs focused on the themes of George Bernard Shaw's play Candida and this original musical production. Special programs will be scheduled on Tuesday evenings from April 21 through May 26, at each of the participating libraries, with several additional book discussions and film showings scheduled separately.

Please join us for our kick-off program and reception at the Glencoe Woman's Library Club. Some of the principal artistic contributors to The Minister's Wife will discuss what it takes to adapt a well-known play to a musical production. Adapting novels and plays to present the works in a new way has been one of the keys to Writers' Theatre success over the past 16 years.

PYGMALION VS. MY FAIR LADY

Tuesday, May 19 at 7:00 p.m.

Because The Minister's Wife involves the adaptation of a Shaw play to a musical, we thought it would be interesting to consider how another of his famous plays, Pygmalion, has been adapted to film. View selected scenes from the movie version of Pygmalion and compare them to the same scenes in the classic Hollywood film musical My Fair Lady. Film scholar Bob Coscarelli will help identify the critical differences that change a play into a musical.

For more information on library programs for adults, see page 2.

TALKING PICTURES

A FILM AND DISCUSSION SERIES

Enjoy an afternoon of thought-provoking cinema and discussion with Susan Benjamin. The film showing starts promptly at 1:00 p.m. in the Hammond Room and will be followed immediately by a discussion period.

THE LIVES OF OTHERS

Monday, March 30 at 1:00 p.m.

This superbly cast German drama portrays the intersecting lives of a loyal Stasi officer and the glamorous intellectual couple he is assigned to spy on just before the fall of the Berlin Wall. The Lives of Others, at once a political thriller and a human drama, won the Oscar for Best Foreign Language Film of 2007.

THE NAMESAKE

Thursday, April 30 at 1:00 p.m.

Based on Jhumpa Lahiri's 2006 novel and directed by Mira Nair, The Namesake details the lives of a Bengali immigrant couple and their anxiously Americanized son. The film combines the intimate pleasures of a family saga with a finely detailed exploration of the difficult balance between separation and integration that shapes the lives of first-generation immigrants and their children.

These film screenings and discussions will occur in the Glencoe Public Library Hammond Room

At the December 17 meeting of the Glencoe Public Library Board of Trustees, Friends of the Library President Nancy Guenther presented Library Board President John Tuohy with a check for $25,000, the first half of a pledged $50,000 to be applied to the improvements to the library's facade, landscape and walkways.

Did You Know?

THE LIBRARY WILL SOON BE 100 YEARS OLD! HELP US CELEBRATE THE LIBRARY'S HISTORY

We begin our celebration with this year's village vehicle sticker, designed by 5th grader Brandon Mitchell in a student contest co-sponsored with the Human Relations Forum. During April, please stop in to view the other entries on display. The library's centennial theme will be displayed on all vehicles during 2009. A series of special activities starts with the April 6th program on the centennial of the Burnham Plan. A list of centennial events will soon be distributed.

As we get ready to celebrate our centennial year—the library was founded in 1910—we ask for your help. Do you have any old photographs or documents having to do with the library? Please let us take a look at your library memorabilia of any sort, especially from our earliest years. We are not asking that you donate your items; we'd just like to look at them and possibly copy or borrow them for an exhibit. Please contact Grace Hayek, the library's public relations coordinator, at 847.835.5056 or ghayek@nsls.info. Thanks!

WRITING WORKSHOPS

Thursdays, March 12, 19, 26 from 2:00 to 3:30pm

Sharon and Steve Fiffer will return this spring to provide three classes for beginning and continuing writers. These classes will be open to all interested writers. No experience as a writer required, just an active interest on committing words to paper. These classes are not workshops for discussion of individual work. However, anyone who has attended previous classes or workshops with the Fiffers is welcome to return for a “jumpstart”!

Jump-Starting Your Fiction: A class with writing exercises and a discussion of methods to help you start that novel or short story. And if you've already started? Suggestions will be offered on revisions, polishing your manuscript, and continuing your writing practice.

Jump-Starting Your Nonfiction Writing: A class with writing exercises and a discussion of memoir and general nonfiction. How to get started and how to keep going!

The Nuts and Bolts of Writing: This class, for fiction writers and non-fiction writers alike, will be a discussion of the “business” of writing. The Fiffers will discuss publishing venues and guidelines for submissions and answer your questions about a writing career.

1959 CHICAGO WHITE SOX— A 50TH ANNIVERSARY REMEMBRANCE

Thursday, March 19 at 7:00 p.m.

On Tuesday night, September 22, 1959, air raid sirens rang throughout Chicago. But this was not a Soviet invasion—it was something much more momentous. The White Sox had just won the American League pennant! Author, sports historian and Glencoe resident Charles Billington returns to the Glencoe Public Library to re-examine an event revered by every south side baseball fan—the 1959 pennant-winning Go-Go White Sox. Get ready for baseball season with this fascinating look at one of the premiere events in Chicagoland's rich sports history.

BOOK DISCUSSIONS

Occasionally it is necessary to change the date of a discussion. Please check with the Readers' Services desk if you have questions. Copies of the books are available for checkout; ask at the Readers' Services desk.

NONFICTION BOOK DISCUSSIONS —BACK BY POPULAR DEMAND

Many of you asked us to continue this program and we are so pleased to have found a skilled and highly experienced leader for this series. The leader may be different, but the focus will remain the same: the well-informed exchange of ideas and opinion inspired by reading topical, well crafted prose. Please join us on Thursdays, April 2 and May 21 at 7:30 p.m. Judy Levin (yes, the same person who leads our Wednesday afternoon primarily fiction book group) will facilitate these always lively discussions. Our first two sessions will be:

April 2 at 7:30 p.m. — The Reluctant Mr. Darwin: An Intimate Portrait of Charles Darwin and the Making of His Theory of Evolution by David Quammen

This year marks the 200th anniversary of Charles Darwin's birth. Darwin took 20 years to write his theory of natural selection, publishing On the Origin of Species only when he feared that he was going to be scooped. Acclaimed science journalist David Quammen's book details the research that allowed Darwin to gain the confidence and evidence to publish a book that would displace humankind from its privileged position as a special creation.

May 21 –Title to be announced.

HAPPY-GO-LUCKY

Monday, March 16 at 1:00 & 7:00 p.m.

Golden Globe winner Sally Hawkins gives a near-perfect performance as Poppy, a London primary school teacher who maintains a steadfastly positive outlook whatever adventures, or misadventures, come her way. Neither simple nor a doormat, Poppy is just fundamentally good and determined to be a positive force in the world. While this seemingly happy film seems a departure for veteran English director Mike Leigh (Vera Drake), it again demonstrates his feeling for female characters and relationships. "A picture so seemingly light that it might be hours (or even days) before you realize how deep and rich it really is." – Stephanie Zacharek, Salon.com

Nominated for five Academy Awards, including a best actor nomination for Frank Langella's great performance as the former president, Frost/Nixon "...begins as a fascinating inside look at the TV news business and then tightens into a spellbinding thriller." – Roger Ebert, Chicago Sun-Times.

Meet the Staff

LARRY SLOMA, REFERENCE LIBRARIAN

Larry Sloma

I am very pleased to be working at the Glencoe Public Library. I'm an Evanston native whose Chicago-rooted family moved to Los Angeles almost immediately after I was born (and their subsequent frequent driving trips "home" may make me a Route 66 native, too). I studied at McGill University and the University of Illinois at Chicago and received a bachelor's in English Literature; I earned my Masters of Library Science at Dominican University in River Forest.

Before getting into the library field, I worked at WTTW for 10 years designing, building and managing the computer software that supported the fund raising efforts of their viewer marketing department. As a librarian, I have worked at the Highland Park Public Library and at Moraine Valley Community College in Palos Hills. My interests outside of work include cycling (ask about my self-contained cross country trip, but allow enough time), photography, reading, movies, and travel. Librarianship runs in my family: my wife is the Head of Youth Services at the Wilmette Public Library, and my sister and numerous in-laws are also librarians.

Donations to the Library

Contributions made to the library are not only a generous way to honor a friend or relative, they also purchase materials that will serve the entire community. The library is always appreciative of donations made in honor or in memory of a loved one, or to commemorate a special event. A gift bookplate may be placed inside the selected material to note the donation and an acknowledgment will be sent to the honoree(s) designated by the donor.

Maggie Scheyer Nancy Frank
Dana Newman Peter and Tamara Wissinger

There were 64 donations made to the David Stein Memorial Fund.

Library Calendar

The library will be closed in observance of the following holidays:

- Easter Sunday, April 12
- Memorial Day, May 25

The library will be closed Sunday, May 24 and all successive Sundays through the Labor Day Weekend.
