Heritage Baking:
An Evening with Hewn’s Ellen King

Down on Dempster Street in Evanston, the artisanal bakery Hewn turns out hearty, flavorful bread the way it was made hundreds of years ago. The store has become a major presence in the Chicago food scene and recognized nationally for its farmer-miller-baker advocacy. On April 24, the library will welcome Hewn’s head baker, Ellen King, to speak about the ingredients and techniques she has revived to produce extraordinary loaves. There will be samples!

Ms. King’s 2018 cookbook, Heritage Baking: Recipes for Rustic Breads and Pastries Baked with Artisanal Flour from Hewn Bakery, includes 45 bread and pastry recipes for bakers of all skill levels. Copies will be available for sale and signing at the event courtesy of the Book Stall. If you want to reserve a copy, email or call the Book Stall.

Wednesday, April 24
at 7:00 p.m.

Genealogy Workshop: A Crash Course

Sunday, March 10, at 2:00 p.m.

This two-and-a-half hour workshop is a fun orientation to accredited sources and research methodology that everyone can use. If you’re a beginner, you’ll take away a sense of what you need to be doing in your research; if you’re an experienced genealogist, you might be surprised to discover how familiarity with accredited research precepts can revitalize your efforts. Presented by Marsha Peterson-Maass, who teaches the same course at the Newberry Library and Oakton Community College. Registration is appreciated but not required.
Spring Programs

BOOKNEWS
Friday, March 8, at 10:00 a.m.
Please join the BookNews troupe for a discussion of new and forthcoming fiction and nonfiction. Tasty refreshments will start at 10:00 a.m. and the presentation will begin promptly at 10:30.

AMAZING AVIAN INTELLIGENCE
Tuesday, March 12, at 7:00 p.m.
Emma England, a board member of the Lake County Audubon Society, will present a program centered on new studies illuminating the mental capacities of birds. Using photos, film clips, and scientific reports, she will provide examples of the startling abilities of parrots, crows, and other species. Cosponsored with the Friends of the Green Bay Trail.

WRITERS' OPEN MIC NIGHT
Wednesdays at 7:00 p.m., March 13, April 10, and May 8
Writers of any age working in all forms and genres are invited to share their work at these community literary evenings. If you want to read your work, please email the moderator, Bob Boone, in advance at ycagsc@gmail.com so he can coordinate the evening’s roster. Everyone is welcome to participate by reading or just by being an appreciative listener.

DEVICE ADVICE
Saturdays, 10:00–11:00 a.m.: March 16, April 20, and May 18
Tuesdays, 6:00–7:00 p.m.: April 2 and May 7
Got a new device and need help setting it up? Have questions regarding special features or a new app? Visit our drop-in Device Advice sessions and feel free to bring in your laptop, tablet, or mobile device so we can help you learn its ins and outs. Hosted by network administrator Athens Moreno in the lower-level Hamil Room.

Need help with a 3D printing project, or just interested in learning the basics? Justin Franklin, our 3D printing expert, will be on hand to answer questions and troubleshoot design challenges. Open to all ages. Registration is encouraged, but drop-ins are welcome as well. You’re also welcome to email 3D questions to 3dprinting@glencoelibrary.org.

Greener World

EARTH HOUR
Saturday, March 30, 8:30–9:30 p.m.
Starting as a symbolic lights-out event in Sydney in 2007, Earth Hour is now the world’s largest grassroots movement for the environment. The World Wildlife Foundation encourages you to get involved by turning off the lights for an hour. You could host a candle-lit dinner, go stargazing, read a book by the light of a solar-powered lamp…the possibilities are endless!
WATERCOLORS FOR FUN
Tuesdays, 6:30–8:30 p.m., April 2, 9, 16, and 23
Learn (or relearn) the joys of watercolor painting! Starting with some basic exercises and techniques, we’ll progress over the four-week series to simple paintings celebrating the exuberant colors of spring.
Taught by Fran Vail, a Northbrook artist and experienced art instructor. The library will supply all materials. Registration is required. Glencoe residents will have priority if the class fills up.

LANDSCAPING FOR BIRDS
Wednesday, April 10, at 7:00 p.m.
Pam Karlson, a garden landscape designer and avid birder, specializes in creating bird and wildlife friendly habitats. She will share her best garden design strategies for attracting numerous species to home gardens. Cosponsored with the Friends of the Green Bay Trail.

BIG BOOKS: WAR AND PEACE
Thursdays, 7:00–8:30 p.m., April 4–May 30
Big Books turns next to Leo Tolstoy’s epic masterwork, which we’ll tackle over nine weeks. It starts in early 19th century St. Petersburg, where party guests express fear that Napoleon will bring war to their doorstep. As the country is indeed swept into Bonaparte’s battles, this grand story centers on three characters: Pierre Bezukhov, the illegitimate son of a count who fights for his inheritance and searches for meaning; Prince Andrei Bolkonsky, who leaves his pregnant wife for the battlefield; and Natasha Rostov, the beautiful noblewoman who captivates both men. A huge cast of additional characters contribute to the tale, all striving to master their worlds during a time of upheaval. Critics agree that Tolstoy wove their stories into one of the greatest novels written.
Heading up the Big Books group will be Holly Marihugh, a professional discussion leader who guided patrons through Bleak House last year. Registration is required. Glencoe residents will get priority if the class fills up. Registration opens March 1; visit the library’s website or call to register.

SOCIAL MEDIA FOR ENTREPRENEURS AND BUSINESSES

Monday Night at the Movies

THE OLD MAN AND THE GUN
Monday, March 18, at 1:00 & 7:00 p.m.
In his acting swan song, Robert Redford is at it again, robbing banks as his younger self did as the Sundance Kid over forty years ago. Based on a true story, The Old Man and the Gun has Redford playing Forrest Tucker, a man who broke out of San Quentin at the age of 70 and committed a series of heists that perhaps charmed the public as much as alarming it. Redford is beautifully matched with Sissy Spacek, playing the woman who loves the stubborn outlaw despite his bank robbing ways. 93 minutes. PG-13.

CAN YOU EVER FORGIVE ME
Monday, April 15, at 1:00 & 7:00 p.m.
Lee Israel was a successful biographer in the 1970s and 80s. As the reading public grew less interested in her work, a cash-strapped Israel turned to crime to pay the bills, forging letters of literary luminaries and later trafficking in stolen missives. In her richest film role, Melissa McCarthy fully inhabits the cantankerous Israel. Abetting her is the charming hustler, Jack, played with gusto by the wonderful Richard E. Grant. It’s not a romance in any conventional way, but Can You Ever Forgive Me? gave us one of the most unlikely and touching pairings of 2018. 107 minutes. Rated R.

ITZHAK
Monday, May 20, at 1:00 & 7:00 p.m.
On its surface, the career of renowned violist Itzhak Perlman warrants a loving film biography. Beyond the obvious success, there is much more: a polio survivor whose parents emigrated from Poland to Israel; violin playing of such a quality that Tel Aviv violinmaker Amnon Weinstein refers to it as “praying with the violin;” a 50-year marriage with wife Toby amongst a large and loving Jewish family in New York City; and continual support for young musicians. Alison Chernick’s film captures all of these aspects of a rich and prolific life. 80 minutes. Not rated.

GUSTAV KLIMT AND THE WOMAN IN GOLD
Wednesday, March 20, at 7:00 p.m.
This slide lecture commemorates the centennial of the death of Austrian artist Gustav Klimt. In her presentation, art historian Dr. Michelle Mishur will discuss important examples of Klimt’s work, including The Kiss and Portrait of Adele Bloch-Bauer (The Woman in Gold). Dr. Mishur also will place Klimt within the art historical context of late-nineteenth century French painting, including the Impressionist, Post-Impressionist and Symbolist movements.
Just for Young Adults

YA COFFEE CLUB: WHAT TO READ OVER SPRING BREAK
Wednesday, March 20, 4:00–5:00 p.m.
Find out about the latest teen books and enjoy a cup of coffee or a treat on us! Meet Michelle at the Readers’ Services desk by 4:00 p.m. and we’ll walk over to Starbucks together, where we’ll enjoy conversation and coffee shop treats. One lucky coffee club member will receive a Starbucks gift card. For 6th–12th graders only.

TEEN BLOCKBUSTER MOVIE & PIZZA NIGHT
Monday, March 25, 5:00–7:00 p.m.
In town for spring break and looking for something fun to do? Join us for a screening of Marvel’s hit Ant-Man and the Wasp while munching on pizza and movie treats. All who show up will be eligible for a random drawing, with the winner receiving an AMC gift card. Please note that this movie is rated PG-13. For 6th–12 graders only.

YA SUMMER READING CLUB
If you’re interested in participating in the summer reading club—and why not, with all the great prizes!—you can register starting Wednesday, May 29.

3D OFFICE HOURS
Saturdays, 10:00-11:00 a.m., March 23, April 27, and May 25
Need help with a 3D printing project, or just interested in learning the basics? Justin Franklin, our 3D printing expert, will be on hand to answer questions and troubleshoot design challenges. Open to all ages.

Meet the Staff

JOSEPH GROSSMAN
Hi! I work in the Circulation Department here at the Glencoe Library. I’ve lived most of my life in Lincolnwood. I graduated from Columbia College with a bachelor’s in art design and a minor in theater. Currently, I’m taking online library classes at College of DuPage to get a library technical assistant certificate. I have worked in a few libraries in the area. I have many hobbies and interests. For starters, I love watching movies and discussing them. I like to read fantasy, sci-fi, nonfiction, and graphic novels. When the weather is not freezing cold, I love to swim at the pool or the beach. I like to practice playing the ukulele and when I’m with my friends I enjoy playing video games and board games. One of my favorite things to do is drawing cartoons and illustrations. I am currently working on a number comic series that I’m hoping to publish. Here is a sample of my work!

Friends’ Corner

Contact the Friends via email at friends@glencoeplibrary.org or visit us at www.glencoeplibrary.org/about/friends-gpl. Please note that we send all information about the concerts and book sales by email. If you’d like to be notified about the concerts and book sales, please provide your email address.

Programs and classes sponsored by the Friends.

APRIL 14 CONCERT
Our spring classical music concert is coming up on Sunday, April 14. We’ll host the Dorel Ensemble featuring members of the Chicago Symphony Orchestra and the Lyric Opera Orchestra: Qing Hou (violin), Lawrence Neuman (viola), and John Sharp (cello). The library will close at 4:00 p.m. and reopen at 4:30 for concert seating.

LATEST GIFTS TO THE LIBRARY
In December, the Friends voted to support the children’s winter reading club, “The Frog Lady” children’s program; the Big Books series of discussions; and staff participation in an electronic resources and libraries conference.

AMAZON SMILE
Now you can support the Friends while you’re shopping online. When using Amazon Smile, a portion of your purchases can be donated to the Friends. To participate, visit Amazon’s Smile webpage, designate the Friends of the Glencoe Public Library as your donation recipient, and shop as you normally would. Thanks!

Next Book Sale
MARCH 2–4
The spring used book sale is nearly here! We’ll have thousands of lightly used books, DVDs, CDs, and more at great prices. Members of the Friends (yes, you may join at the door) are invited to the members’ preview sale on Friday, March 1, 6:00–8:00 p.m. Membership is available to current residents of Glencoe who donate to the Friends. Regular sale hours are Saturday, March 2, 9:00 a.m.–5:00 p.m.; Sunday, March 3, 12:00 noon–5:00 p.m. (everything half price); and Monday, March 4, 9:00 a.m.–12:00 noon ($3/bag sale). Enter through the west side of the building.

GLENCOE GENERATIONS: DEEP ROOTS ON THE NORTH SHORE
Sunday, April 7, at 2:00 p.m.

The earliest non-native settlers to the land that is now the Village of Glencoe came from England, Germany, and Sweden. They were followed by groups of African Americans, Italians, and Jews. From its earliest days, Glencoe has been a home to cultural diversity that has shaped the community’s development throughout its 150-year history.

This Sesquicentennial program, presented in partnership with the Glencoe Historical Society, explores the origins of immigration to Glencoe from the perspective of historical fact and family lore. Our panel of presenters includes representatives from families that have resided in Glencoe for as many as seven generations. Please join us as the group shares Glencoe memories and discusses the unique cultural aspects that make Glencoe what it is today.

DID YOU KNOW?

Three of the library’s past directors and our founder were honored in January by the Glencoe Historical Society as one of “Glencoe’s 150,” which recognized the most influential residents in our community’s history. Congratulations to Sarah Hammond, Helen Beckwith, Peggy Hamil, and Otto Barnett!
