An Insider's Guide to Outsider Art

Tuesday, October 18, at 7:30 p.m.

What's often called outsider art—created by people with little or no experience with the art world—is drawing increasing interest from that very same art world. It's being noticed that some of the most refreshing art of the last 100 years has been made by people with no formal training. Find out what's so exciting about this "art that doesn't know its name," hear about some of the most important artists, like Chicago's own Henry Darger, and learn about Chicago-based Intuit: The Center for Intuitive and Outsider Art, one of the world's leading institutions devoted to this work. Presenter Bill Swislow is an art collector and Intuit board member who has written extensively about outsider art.

THIS IS YOUR LIFE: FINDING, DEVELOPING, AND WRITING YOUR STORY

Tuesdays at 7:00 p.m.

September 20, September 27, and October 4

Are you interested in writing memoir—for family, friends, a larger audience, or just yourself? Award-winning writers Sharon and Steve Fiffer will lead three 90-minute workshops to help you get started or to shape and refine a current endeavor. Each of the programs will focus on a different aspect of writing memoir—memory, context and perspective, and style.

In-class activities will include writing and workshoping in a safe, supportive environment and critiques with the Fiffers. This is not a how-to-get published workshop, but the Fiffers will share their experiences in the publishing world.

Sharon and Steve Fiffer have led writing workshops at universities, libraries, and other venues for over 20 years and are the founders and moderators of the Wesley Writers Workshop. Registration is required.

VISITING PROFESSOR: ELLEN GREEN ON LONDON ARCHAEOLOGY

Tuesday, October 11, at 7:30 p.m.

Sponsored by the Friends of the Glencoe Public Library.

The city of London is a modern, thriving metropolis, a far cry from the barren deserts and deserted jungles in which people picture archaeologists working. Yet the United Kingdom's capitol city contains over 6,000 years of history beneath its streets and a large number of archaeological digs. From Iron Age sacrifice pits to 17th century hospitals and unexploded WWII bombs, London offers many unexpected windows into the past. This talk will offer a digger's eye view of the city as well as a look at the glorious, muddy practice of urban archaeology.

Glencoe native Ellen Green has worked as an archaeologist in Transylvania, York, Durham, and London. She has a BA in archaeology and ancient civilizations and a MSc in paleopathology from the University of Durham. Specializing in human remains, Ms. Green has dabbled in most roles on site and is currently working as a field archaeologist for AOC Archaeology Group. She is firmly of the belief that nothing is better than a day spent down a hole, covered in mud, looking for interesting things.

DARK HORSE

Monday, September 19, at 1:00 and 7:00 p.m.

Need a bit of inspiration? Look no further. Dark Horse recounts the unlikely and—yes—inspirational story of a Welsh barmaid and her husband's purchase of a racehorse along with the financial help and advice of their decidedly non-upper-crust community. Despite their lack of wealth and expertise, the horse manages to compete in the Welsh Grand National. It couldn't possibly win, could it?

85 minutes. Rated PG.

CITY OF GOLD

Monday, October 17, at 1:00 and 7:00 p.m.

City of Gold is a celebration of a man and a city, both replete with humanity. The man is Pulitzer Prize-winning food critic Jonathan Gold. The city is Los Angeles. Known to champion out of the way ethnic eateries more often than the city's glitziest restaurants, Gold traverses the city, celebrating through his eating and writing Los Angeles in all its staggering diversity.

91 minutes. Rated R.

MARGUERITE

Monday, November 21, at 1:00 and 7:00 p.m.

Based on the actual exploits of American socialite Florence Foster Jenkins, Marguerite moves the story to 1920's Paris. Much like the real Ms. Jenkins, the fictional Marguerite's love of opera singing is exceeded only by her complete lack of talent, a fact of which she is blithely unaware. "Marguerite achieves what the protagonist herself never managed: perfect pitch." — Michael Phillips, Chicago Tribune.

93 minutes. Rated PG-13.

OH SAY, CAN YOU SEE: IMAGES OF PATRIOTISM IN AMERICAN ART

Wednesday, October 26, at 7:00 p.m.

Art historian Dr. Michelle Mishur will present a slide lecture about patriotic themes, symbols, and subjects in the history of American art. Dr. Mishur's program features a variety of paintings that inspire feelings of patriotism. She will discuss images of George Washington, the American flag, the American landscape, and other subjects within their historic context.

Meet the Trustee

JOHN TUOHY

Born in Chicago, raised in Cleveland, educated in Ann Arbor and Boston, with a stint in the U.S.Navy in California, I chose Chicago for my future. Anne and I arrived in Glencoe in 1973, our second child having pushed out of our city apartment. We were soon to discover what a warm, charming and diverse community we landed in. Early years were busy with three children and my job with a law firm in Chicago, not leaving much time for community involvement. But I was asked to sit on the Zoning Board, and later a couple of ad hoc commissions. The library was a regular hangout for this voracious reader and for our kids with inquiring minds. It was clear to me, once I had a bit of available time, that I needed to work to preserve this hugely valuable community trust. So I volunteered to serve on the Library Board. I served the usual eight year term, working with the inimitable Peggy Hamil. Lo and behold, I was later asked to fill in a one-year vacancy. Again I stepped down, only to be asked to fill another two year vacancy. This time, I am pleased to be working with our new Executive Director, Andy Kim.

As it is for many, for me the library is the soul, or heart, of Glencoe. It is where I find books for mental stimulation and relaxation, where I so often see friends, and where I am greeted by a friendly and helpful staff. It has also served as my work room and reference source when I recently sought a master's degree from the University of Chicago. I read more non-fiction these days.

When not reading, I am busy with a couple other non-profit boards, staying physically active, involvement at St. Elisabeth's Episcopal Church, and traveling with Anne to visit our children and grandchildren scattered across the nation. I'm really honored to be a member of the board, and I cherish my relationship with the staff and the other trustees.
